FmHA AN No. 1825 (1955)

November 21, 1988

SUBJECT: Federally Recognized Indian Reservation Boundaries

TO: State Directors and District Directors

ATTENTION: Farmer Programs Chiefs

PURPOSE/INTENDED OUTCOME:

The purpose of this AN is to provide added emphasis to the importance of determining the boundaries of Federally recognized Indian Reservations and Indian allotments. This will enable field offices to sell and manage inventory farm properties located within these areas in an expeditious manner.

COMPARISON WITH PREVIOUS AN:

No previous AN has been issued on this subject.

IMPLEMENTATION RESPONSIBILITIES:

State Directors and Farmer Programs Chiefs will immediately review Section 1955.66(d)(1) of FmHA Instruction 1955-B, and make contact with the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) Agency Superintendent to determine the boundaries of Indian Reservations

EXPIRATION DATE: September 30, 1989
